

Cegedim SRH accelerated its growth and strengthened its teams in 2010

The company's revenues have risen more than 70% in three years. The recruitment plan launched in 2010 is picking up steam in 2011.

Paris, February 9, 2011 – Over the past year Cegedim SRH, Cegedim Group's human resources specialist, has consolidated its position as a major player in the market for payroll management and HR solutions and services.

Yet again in 2010, Cegedim SRH's performance was very encouraging and above average for the market. In addition to the quality of the services it rendered, the company's success stems from the efficiency and adaptability of the TEAMS^{RH} platform, an industry standard HRIS for payroll outsourcing and HR management for companies of every size and business sector. The solution is just as suited to mid-market companies as it is to large corporations.

The recruitment campaign launched in 2010 is picking up steam in 2011

The market has embraced the TEAMS^{RH} solution so eagerly that the company launched a large-scale recruitment effort in early 2010 designed to strengthen its teams and boost sales performances. The prospect of strong growth in 2012-13 has led Cegedim SRH to pick up the pace. Nearly 50 new posts will be created in the early part of 2011. The company will be looking to fill both front and back office positions: payroll manager, HRIS consultant, customer account manager, Java engineer, project manager and business engineer are just a few of the positions opening up.
