

Cegedim Announces the Signature of an Agreement to Acquire Nightingale's US Business

Transaction strengthens Cegedim Cloud Practice Management position in the United States

Boulogne-Billancourt, October 6, 2015 – Cegedim, an innovative technology and services company, today announced the signature of an agreement for the acquisition of the US based Practice Management business of Nightingale Informatix Corporation by its US subsidiary Pulse System, Inc. The acquisition includes the assets of Nightingale's Medrium, Ridgemark, Secure Connect and Northern Health Products.

Jeff Burton, the Pulse Systems President and CEO stated that "We are excited about this acquisition and the strength of the healthcare IT professionals that will be joining the Pulse team upon closing along with the clients that they serve".

Following the closing, the Pulse focus with its new US clients will be to upgrade and advance each medical organization into the growing Pulse offering of state-of-the-art technology and service solutions. These solutions enable each medical organization to leverage the power and simplicity of Pulse's suite of fully-integrated proprietary products offered in both client server and cloud environments.

The acquired activities generated annual revenue of around €3.3 million. This acquisition will contribute to Cegedim's consolidated results starting in Q4 2015. The deal was financed with internal financing.
