

Cegedim awarded « the Grand Prix for Financial Transparency » 2011 Edition organized by Labrador and the Club Finance HEC Paris

Paris, October 11 2011 – Cegedim, a global technology and services company specializing in the healthcare field, received “the Grand Prix for Financial Transparency of the SBF 250”.

For the past three years, the “Grand Prix for Financial Transparency” prizes have been awarded in recognition for the best practices in regulated financial reporting. They pay tribute to the listed French companies that have demonstrated their ability to make use of the best financial communications tools against a background of increasingly stringent demands on the part of the regulatory authorities and the different financial market players.

The ranking of the different companies is drawn up by a scientific committee comprised of representatives of the principal French market players and spheres of influence in the area of financial reporting (including the AMF financial market authority). Thus, Cegedim received the:
