Cegedim builds on its APAC presence with Valtatech partnership

- Cegedim builds strength to its implementation capability with Valta Technology Group

PARIS, MELBOURNE and MANILA, July 10, 2018 – Cegedim, an innovative technology and services company, today announced that it will be partnering with Melbourne-based Valtatech (Valta Technology Group), as part of its global expansion and to satisfy the increasing demand for its solutions in the Asia Pacific (APAC) markets. The partnership is also an expansion to the existing projects delivered jointly by Valtatech and Cegedim for large European Corporations rolling out their digital transformation projects for their APAC Service Centers.

Cegedim's partnership with Valtatech will strengthen the business' presence in the Australian, Asian and Pacific markets. Partnership with Valtatech enables businesses of all sizes to adopt Cegedim's market leading e-Invoicing solution with Valtatech support and supplier onboarding services.

Patrick Schuller, Business Development Director for Cegedim e-business, says: "Many Asian countries are rolling out compliance frameworks with a view of improving their productivity, and increasing compliance and auditability with local tax authorities. A great example of this is the recently announced Singapore government PEPPOL support initiative¹. With Valtatech supporting and implementing Cegedim solutions in the region, we are closely positioned for this growth to support our new and existing clients across the Asia Pacific."

Patrick Schuller continues: "We offer technology to realise the benefits of e-Invoicing for organisations of all sizes. We are very excited of being able to replicate the success stories we've realised across our clientele in Europe, to Asia Pacific."

Jussi Karjalainen, CEO and founder of Valta Technology Group, says: "Businesses across the Asia Pacific require a partner to offer a turn key solution on e-Invoicing, with solution, technology and implementation offered as a service. This is where the combined technology strength of Cegedim with Valtatech implementation services will add great value and opportunity for the businesses across the region."
